Town's 1957 Tax Rate Unchanged At 50 Mills

Vulcan's tax rate will remain unchanged this year. At the regular April meeting of the town council, with Mayor William Munro presiding, rates were set at Hospital, 4 (up 1 from last year); School, 27 (up 2), and Municipal, 19 (down 3) to give a total mill rate of 50, the same as last year.

A five percent discount will be given on current taxes paid by the end of June. No discount will be allowed on taxes outstanding after that date.

Business tax was set at the uniform rate of 20 mills.

Constable J. L. Moyer was authorized to attend a Civil Defence course at Arnprior, Ont., May 6-10, all his expenses being defrayed by the provincial government.

No bids were received on the properties offered for sale at the tax sale.

M. R. Morrison was appointed to represent the Town of Vulcan on the board of the Foothills Health Unit.

Constable Moyer was authorized to attend the plumbing inspector's course at Red Deer April 8-11.

Clean-up Week
May 20-25 will be proclaimed as "Clean-up Week" in the Town of Vulcan and the proclamation to this effect will be published in the Advocate.

Street Numbering
A suggestion made at the annual meeting that town streets and avenues by numbered as a matter of convenience in giving directions resulted in a motion that such a plan be undertaken and permission secured from the Alberta Government Telephones and Calgary Power Ltd., to paint the street and avenue numbers on the telephone and power poles.

Building Permits
A building permit for James

Berg was approved for construction of a 24x36 frame dwelling on Lot 2, Block 24.

The town solicitors, Jamison & Kush, were authorized to draw up an agreement to be signed by the purchaser of lots in the new subdivision. Suggested restrictions in this area include a minimum of 1000 square feet of floor space and a provision that only new dwellings be erected.

Dogs
The by-law regarding dogs running at large and the imposing of a tax of the owners of the dogs was read three times and passed.

Access Road
The secretary was instructed to write the Minister of Highways for confirmation that an access road would be provided when No. 23 highway adjacent to Vulcan is hard-surfaced this summer.

Home and School Will Discontinue Regular Meetings

At the last regular meeting of the Vulcan Home and School Association the association voted to discontinue regular meetings.

The action came following a long period of parental disinterest. With only a few exceptions attendance at the meetings has been less than 20 parents out of more than 600 over a period of more than two years. A number of offices are vacant or only temporarily filled, and all efforts to fill them have been unsuccessful.

According to the motion which was adopted, regular meetings may be resumed immediately upon the petition of 100 parents. Until that time the current executive will carry on a skeleton organization.

Political Forums Sponsored By District 12, F.U.A.

Tommy Primrose in his agricultural column in the Calgary Herald, calls it old-time politics and return to real live political drama when District 12 F.U.A. provides the means for bringing back into fashion the chance for people to see their candidates, ask them questions and size them up generally.

District 12 has made arrangements for the candidates so far named in Macleod federal riding to appear at 11 public meetings in the riding on the same platform. The F.U.A. is not expressing favor of any one candidate but wishes to give voters and candidates a chance to meet personally to get better acquainted. Mr. Primrose calls it, "An endeavor to create a healthy interest in politics."

Candidates so far named include E. G. Hansell, Social Credit, present member; Gordon Burton of Claresholm, Liberal candidate; Dr. Lawrence E. Kindt of High River, Conservative, and John Griffin of Fort Macleod, C.C.F.

Each program will allow candidates to address the meeting briefly and then there will be an audience question period with three minutes allowed for reply. Candidates will be given five minutes to make a final statement.

Meetings will commence on April 22, at Carmangay, April 23, Granum; April 24, Pincher; April 25, Fort Macleod, April 26, Black Diamond; April 30, Nanton; May 1, Okotoks; May 2, High River; May 4, Staveland; May 6, Vulcan and May 18, Arrowwood.

Oil Production and Demand Ten Years Since Leduc

CANADA'S DEMAND for oil has risen rapidly in the 10 years since the discovery of oil at Leduc, but Canadian oil production has increased even faster. In 1946, Canada was producing less than 10 percent of her total oil needs; in 1951, about 31 percent; and by the beginning of this year, nearly 70 percent.

Annual Supper-Meeting Held

Ray Wellman Again Heads Vulcan Curling Club

At the annual supper and meeting of the Vulcan Curling Club, held last Friday evening, Ray Wellman was re-elected president.

Other officers elected are Ben Dann, 1st vice-president; Russell Graham, 2nd vice-president; Bev Banks, Art Jones, Ivan Haga and Glen Graham, directors. George Armstrong was named draw-master and Jack Metcalf was elected secretary-treasurer.

The treasurer's report showed that the club had enjoyed a successful year. It was decided that $3,000 of the sinking fund established for installation of artificial ice would be invested in Dominion of Canada 3% bonds of 1963 maturity. The Ladies' Curling Club reported a net profit on their operation of the coffee counter of $547.36, and turned over to the men's club a cheque for the amount of $550, this being in addition to a previous donation of $150.

It was decided that in future $4 would be collected from each rink entering the annual president vs. vice-president competition, with the rinks on the winning side having their entry fee refunded after the series is completed.

Howard Spaeth was named a committee of one to attempt to rejuvenate interest in high school curling. A cuff links and tie pin set was presented to him by members of the high school rink, skipped by Blain Middleton, that reached the district finals this year.

It was decided to provide the ladies' curling club with a square draw trophy, supported by four miniature trophies.

After this she gave a report of the recent cancer meeting held in Lethbridge. A discussion period followed both on Mrs. MacQuarrie's talks and a hearty vote of thanks was extended to her.

The business part of the meeting was short with the choosing of a delegate to the May Provincial Conference tabled until the next meeting. Roll call was a guessing contest arranged by Mrs. G. Hutton and won by Miss Shirley Hutton. The tea raffle was won by Mrs. C. L. Dennison. Two new members, Mrs. R. Hutton and Mrs. L. Duckmanton, were welcomed to the group. The hostess served a lovely lunch assisted by Mrs. R. S. Irwin and Mrs. R. Lyman.

The Cantata consists of favorite Lenten hymns in arrangements by Johann Sebastian Bach, interspersed with scripture readings taken from the four Gospels in the King James Version. The congregation will be included in this Good Friday meditation with several seasonal hymns.

The Easter Service will be special because of its time setting. 7 a.m. will mark the beginning of this "Easter Sunrise Service."

Pastor Lowell L. Guebert will preach on the theme: "Victory Through Christ Over Death."

"Last years Dawn service was very successful, attracting one of the year's largest attendances. We expect even more this year," the pastor stated.

Former Resident Dies in U.S.A.

Word was received here at the weekend of the death Friday night at Los Angeles, Cal., after a lengthy illness of Bert Love, formerly of the Vulcan district.

Mr. Love came with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Love, to this district in 1910, and continued here until his enlistment in 1914, in World War I. He served overseas until the end of the war, when he returned to farm north and east of Vulcan.

He was married to Miss Velma Gordon and some 25 years ago went with her to California, where they have resided since.

Surviving him are his wife; three daughters and four grandchildren in the United States; and three brothers, Clifford, Alva and Willard, all of Vulcan.

Miss Eloise Whiteside Wed at Calgary

REID-BICKNELL — WHITESIDE

Baskets of pink and white carnations formed the setting for a double-ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. J. S. Clarke, recently at Scarborough Avenue United Church, when Audrey Eloise, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Whiteside of Vulcan, became the bride of John Lawther, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid-Bicknell, of Regina, Sask.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a traditional floor-length gown of satin and lace trim, featuring a Queen Ann collar, accented by pearls. The floor-length veil was held in place with a coronet of lace and pearls. The bride carried a white Bible, topped by a white orchid, and she wore an engraved bracelet, the gift of the groom.

Fred Squires was soloist.

The bride's attendants were Miss Shirley Aikman, as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Darlene Prentice and Miss Colleen Whiteside, with little Linda Voisey as flower girl. Miss Aikman wore a street-length, princess line dress in deep turquoise blue, with matching gloves and hat. The bridesmaids were dressed in identical frocks of pale turquoise, while the flower girl was in turquoise and white.

The best man was R. Harland and ushers were Cody Whiteside, brother of the bride and Duane McLeod. Master Harold Squires was ring-bearer.

A reception for 75 guests was held at the Calgary Petroleum Club, which was decorated with a profusion of spring flowers, for the occasion. Receiving with the bridal couple were the parents of each. Mrs. Whiteside chose a black and red two-piece dress, with matching accessories, for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Bicknell wore a beige gown and accessories and each complemented her ensemble with a red rose corsage.

The bride's cake centered her table, with low bowls of flowers. C.R. Spencer proposed the toast to the bride.

Far going away the bride changed to a black and grey wool suit, with black and white accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

The happy couple will make their home in Regina, Sask.

Guests were from Edmonton, Calgary, Regina, Vancouver, Vulcan, Fort Macleod and Claresholm.

Highway 23

Assurance has been received that Highway 23 will be paved this year from Champion north to Vulcan and the letter containing this information implies that the decision to hard-surface this stretch of road was only made after strong representations to have this work done had been made by Hon. Peter Dawson, the member representing this constituency.

We cannot understand why it was necessary for Mr. Dawson to urge that this work be done this year unless it was the intention of the highway department to leave us with nothing but a gravelled road from Champion north. Surely, after rebuilding the highway from Champion to the junction 12 miles north of Vulcan for the expressed purpose of making it suitable for hard-surfacing, it was not the intention of the highway department to completely forget the matter this year. If there was no intention of continuing the hard-surfacing project this year we are glad that the local member was able to speak for the rights of his constituents and secure results.

Highway 23 from Vulcan 12 miles north to the junction is also ready for application of the base course but, as yet, not a word has been said about it by the highway department. Nor has anything been said about the re-building of Highway 23 from the junction with 24 to the proposed junction with the four-lane No. 2, just east of High River.

Viewing the importance of Highway 23 as an alternate to the heavily travelled and much patched No. 2 highway from Monarch via Fort Macleod to High River, it is hard to understand the minister of highways' apparent lack of concern over the completion of 23 as a hard-surfaced route. To us, at least, it would make good sense to have, right now, two two-lane blacktop roads joining with the four-lane highway at High River and this would certainly ease the traffic load on the two-lane portion of No. 2.

We'd like to hear more from Edmonton regarding the hard-surfacing from Vulcan north and from the junction 12 miles north. The twelve mile stretch of base course from Champion to Vulcan isn't much of a project for one year.

Cash Advances

We wonder how long the federal government is going to be able to avoid instituting a policy of cash advances on farm-stored grain? Farmers in Southern Alta., have been getting by through diversification of crops and by raising more livestock, but wheat is still the big crop and there is no great change, apparently, in the export picture this year. The United States "giveaway" program is still hurting us badly and indications point to a record Canadian wheat carryover at the end of this current crop year.

It is stated, and we agree, that a couple of years of short crops would bring the wheat carryover down to manageable size. But isn't this just wishful thinking on the part of the government? Based on the past ten years or so, the odds certainly favor continued production of good crops.

Many plans have been suggested for easing the wheat farmer's burden by advancing him money against his unsold wheat, but none of these plans has proven acceptable to the government. In Saskatchewan particularly, where diversification of crops is apparently more difficult to achieve, the plight of the farmer is becoming more serious.

The federal government is obviously very sure of winning the forthcoming election without making a play for the wheat farmer's vote, but unless wheat production drops considerably or exports show a marked increase the matter of cash advances against farm-stored grain will have to receive serious consideration, and soon.

Champion Of The Taxpayer

The general manager of The Steel Company of Canada, V. W. Scully, said in a recent address that Canadians are "more than generous contributors to the various levels of government who seem to find it much easier to spend the money than we do to earn it."

"Extractions by taxation is a disease like creeping paralysis . . . Inter-governmental squabbles are not over the injustice to the contributor but over the division of the spoils."

He also pointed out that money "desperately needed for plant investment and expansion is being siphoned away from corporations and individuals. This has become a vicious and chronic habit with our governments. It is one that could some day bring about the end of this system of free enterprise which has enabled us — all of us — to progress as we have."

There is a great deal of truth in what Mr. Scully says, and it applies right down to the level of business in this district, not just to national corporations.

And the significant thing about the whole matter is that Mr. Scully is a former chief tax collector for the federal government, his official title being deputy minister of national revenue (taxation).

THE TALE OF THE WILTED WEEDS

(There's just no future in being a weed)

Once, when the West was younger, a family of weeds had a homestead that looked better every year, especially up on the north forty. Then about 1880 a farmer came along. It turned out alright, though, because the farmer just planted some wheat and the weeds could deal with an outsider like that.

The farmer and that family fought tooth and nail, thorn and thistle, for about 67 years and it looked like the weeds were going to win hands down until the farmer's son learned about chemical weed control. Well, sir, the first spraying of 2, 4-D just about broke up the weed family. There were so few of them left that summer, the wheat yield nearly doubled. Every year, a few weeds sneak back but it looks as though there's just no future in being a weed.

Moral: The value of chemical weed control has been proven beyond any doubt, but weeds need control every year. The National Grain Company wants to help in every way, by selling the best possible equipment and a choice of chemicals for weed control. Call on your National agent soon, won't you?

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burger on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Copthorne of Cochrane.

Mrs. Alma Salter is a patient in Vulcan hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

The F.W.U.A. will sponsor a Political Meeting on May 8, in the Community Hall, at 8 p.m. All candidates for the federal election will be speaking. Everyone invited.

F.W.U.A. Meeting
The regular meeting of the Arrowwood local was held on Wednesday in the U.F.A. Hall with sixteen ladies present. Mrs. D. House reported on the wool shipment and gave details of a new premium deal. It was decided to ask Mr. Logree, our new director to speak at the next joint meeting on April 17.

The afternoon meeting heard Mrs. Forest House report on her trip to Ottawa. Since the annual meeting of the F.U.A. decided to appoint an action committee to present the problems of the farmers on the land to Ottawa, twelve directors were chosen to go to hear the presentation of the brief. Government statistics continue to point to the favorable status of the citizens of Canada, but need to be reminded of the unfortunate plight of the wheat farmer. Members of parliament, with their assured "take-home pay," part of which is free of Income Tax are apt to forget the man on the land whose standard of living is suffering through his inability to sell what he produces.

Mrs. House reported a most enjoyable trip down and spoke of the delegations representing Saskatchewan and Manitoba. They were graciously received by the government members who listened attentively while they outlined their grievances. To list them all would take columns of paper but the main items were parity prices, long term credit for young farmers, national food bank, retention of the Crows Nest Pass Agreement, nationalization of the C.P.R., crop insurance, legislation to allow the setting up of marketing boards, succession duties, income tax, etc.

While in Ontario Mrs. House found a cousin who was president of a Farmer's Union group at Hobcaygeon so she proceeded to their meeting to learn first hand of their problems. Their chief concern is the high price that they pay for feed grain, their hog marketing problem and the lack of farm labor.

The delegates interviewed Dr. Hannam and he assured them that the Federation of Agriculture would continue to press for a better deal for the farmers. Dr. Hannam expressed the view that they would like to keep a permanent lobby in the House of Commons, but lack of finance made this impossible.

Mr. Diefenbaker heard the delegation and discussed the brief with them. He assured them that his followers would take note of the urgent plea of the farmers.

Mrs. House and Mrs. C. T. Armstrong were entertained at dinner by Rev. E. G. Hansell.

TEENAGE NYLONS

My daughter is now in nylons, but only for party affairs. I decided, in a moment of parental affection, to buy her half a dozen pairs, because I know how an active youngster can provoke runs in those gossamer creations.

The young lady at the lingerie store immediately noted that I was a male, somewhat embarrassed in a store that seemed all frills and lace, so she brought out the most expensive and sheerest hosiery in stock.

"But look," I said, "My daughter's just a kid... they horse around like young animals... I want something strong."

"These," sighed the lovely blonde, "are so beautiful and she'd get such kicks from them. And it's wise, buying six pairs at a time, because you can pair up the ones without runs. Besides — if you buy now, you'll save, because nylons just have to go up in price... like everything else."

"Seems to me," I said, scuffing my toes on the rug, "that they cost enough now."

The blonde raised her cute little nose. "Nylon hosiery," she said, "has not increased in price anything like other things. As a matter of fact, stockings are cheaper now than they were 10 years ago, so they are absolutely certain to go up — they just have to."

Logic like this, and a pair of very attractive blue eyes looking over the counter at me, completed the transaction. I'm a pushover for logic, I guess.

But once the deal was completed and the clerk and I got chatty, she told me, with a nice little smile, that she bought heavier nylons for everyday wear and the sheer kind only for special occasions. She also told me she came from a farm near Winnipeg, and that she's finding it tough paying rent for her apartment, buying food, and bus tickets.

"Everything's up in price," she said, "and I wasn't kidding when I told you nylons will be sure to go up. All the girls in the store are stocking up but we all agree that nylons and other clothing, haven't shot up like other things."

And then, blushing a little, she admitted that she'd sold me the most expensive stockings in the shop. "With men," she said, "we do that — why not?"

Well, why not? If the worst thing I ever do is take home a parcel of stockings a little too sheer to be practical, I guess I'll be all right.

Besides, that clerk — scarcely more than 19 herself — was very pretty and I liked her. She had brains and sales ability as well as beauty. I am sure that one minute after I left the store, she'd forgotten I existed. But I hadn't forgotten what she said.

When my wife's eyebrows went up at the sight of six pairs of ultra sheer nylons, I was ready. "Got a bargain," I said. "Nylons are going up... you can bet on it. Thought it prudent to get these for Sally now. Boy, when you've a family you've got to watch the trends!"

HANDY HELP

A first aid kit is a "must for any home, store office or car. In case of accident, a well stocked kit supplies dressings, antiseptic and other essentials for giving aid until the doctor arrives. Care should be taken to ensure that dressings and instruments are kept sterile and that antiseptics are not hoarded until evaporation reduces them to a dangerous potency. The door of the cabinet or lid of container housing the first aid material should be kept closed against dust and dirt and inquisitive children.

BRANT

Miss Arlene Parker of Calgary was home for the weekend, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erant Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pearson of Bon Accord, Alta., arrived via train Thursday evening, to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pearson and Mrs. Pearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jensen and sister, Mrs. Danney Watson and brother, Clifford Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilkinson and family of Calgary are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wilkinson.

Joe Druhah of Calgary was home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Druhah for the weekend and visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brant Parker.

The Alberta Wheat Pool held their annual meeting in the Brant church hall Wednesday evening. A number of members and families and friends were present to enjoy the colorful films shown. Norman Bell of Calgary, fieldman for the Pool Co., and Mr. Morrison, a farmer of the High River district and a delegate for the Wheat Pool for this district, were in charge of the meeting and spoke as briefly as possible on the business transactions of the Pool for the past year.

Mrs. Blanch Murphy of Calgary came Thursday to visit her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schultz.

Mrs. Donald Schultz is a patient in the High River hospital.

Home and School Association

The regular meeting of the Brant Home and School was held on April 3, with approximately 32 members present. The program part of the meeting was held first for the convenience of the speaker who had to leave early.

Mrs. Gordon Thompson introduced the guest speaker, Roy Brookbank of Calgary, who is on the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews. In his opening remarks he explained that this council consists of one-third Protestants, one-third Roman Catholics and one-third Jews, who's motto is Brotherhood of Man under the Fatherhood of God.

His main topic, "The Eagle Feather" concerned the part the Indians play in our culture and our acceptance of them in our lives. He explained the meaning of scrip, its origin and how it led to the current Indian problem. This led to the question of what are our responsibilities to the Indians and what are the responsibilities of the Home and School in this situation.

Mr. Brookbank defined integration and told how it would permit Indians to live among us singly or in groups and still retain their culture.

Following his talk the meeting was broken up into groups for buzz sessions to produce questions to draw out further information. Some of the questions explained were:

1. What could the Home and School do to help the Indians?
2. Would integration mean the Indians leaving the reserve?
3. What is section 12 of the Indian Act?

4. Why has there not been more integration to date?

5. What is the level of education offered on the reserve.

This was a very interesting and informative program and the Home and School appreciated being able to obtain Mr. Brookbank as a speaker.

In the business part of the meeting Mrs. Pat Gallagher gave a report on the recent Home and School Institute held in Vulcan. A committee consisting of Mrs. Ross Kennedy, Mrs. Bob Gothard and Mrs. Cliff Fletcher was set up to find a new music teacher for next term.

The net profit from the Variety Show was shown to be $128.06.

Following a report by Mrs. Jack Fletcher on the books from the library it was decided to send a donation of $5 to the Vulcan Library. It was announced that the Home and School convention will be held May 8 to 10, in Edmonton.

The next meeting will be held on May 1, with the program to be a film, "Mike Makes His Marks," which concerns the teen-age level and will be followed by a discussion.

BLACKIE

At the last Red Cross meeting, Mrs. W. J. Colliton was appointed to arrange about the Red Cross Sewing for this district. At the present time, the Blackie workers will give assistance to the High River Work Committee. As a convenience to workers, sewing may be taken out from and returned to Mrs. J. Cumming in Blackie.

Bob Jackson is a patient in the High River hospital suffering from very serious injuries received from an accident on his farm. He had a narrow escape involving the tractor though details of the accident are not available.

Calvin Lowery has been much in the news lately because of his hobby of collecting geological specimens. His hobby is well known here because of the display of the rocks shown recently in the Hub Store. Inspired by his enthusiasm, neighboring boys and girls have started interesting collections of their own. This latest burst of interest was caused by his request for a sample of tektite which may or may not have come from the moon. Publicity has recently been given to a letter he wrote to Mrs. Alma Diebolt of Vancouver who shops around for hard-to-get items and her willingness to hunt for the mineral sample and send it to Mr. Lowery.

When speaking to Mr. Lowery, he reminded us that though he has much interest in his collection, his main "hobby" is the care of a Korean war orphan, Kyung Chun Ja, to whom he sends money and material gifts.

Mrs. Florence Sutor has returned home from the hospital after undergoing surgery.

Mrs. Lil Manville and son Teddy of Calgary were visitors here for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Howden have returned home from Edmonton where they visited with relatives.

Miss Betty Hammer spent the weekend with her father in Vulcan.

Mrs. Bertha Wonnocott motored to Calgary for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Ogden of Santa Barbara, Calif., are guests in Blackie of their friends. It is nice to welcome them back and hear of their winter in the sunny south.

The Gordon Bateman wedding dance, held on Friday night was well attended and much enjoyed.

Miss Gail Stier has been promoted to teller on the staff at the Royal Bank.

Mrs. E. Braunwarth was a weekend visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. Pallesen in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Douglas and family have moved to the farm home and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Egeland and family are moving into the Bucher house, formerly occupied by the Douglas family. The Alex Pauls are then moving into Egeland's former residence known as the "Rockafellow" house and recently purchased by the Pauls.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gillanders and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Husby enjoyed dinner and a show in Calgary on Friday evening. Weekend guests at the Husby home were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Husby and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Tatem and families of Tiley.

"If Canada is to continue the upsurge in business she has enjoyed of late, one of her prime needs is still growth in population." —Roy Halliday, president, Canadian Lumberman's Association.

Canadian scientists at McGill University and elsewhere are experimenting with the effect of hormones in cancer growth. Some researchers believe that an "imbalance" of the endocrine (ductless gland) system may have some bearing on the growth of malignant cells.

Wireworms and Your Crop

Wireworms can be found in the soil of almost every acre of grain-growing land in Western Canada. They inflict crop damage by destroying seed and seedlings.

Damage -- before the development of seed dressings, wireworms caused an annual average loss of more than $650.00 per half section farm, with the total annual loss in the Prairie Provinces totalling $50,000,000.00. On some individual farms crop losses range from 75 to 100%.

Dry Years -- Wireworms are more destructive during dry years. Above normal moisture levels of the past ten years have reduced the amount of damage. However, moisture levels are moving downward and present conditions point to a heavier wireworm infestation in 1957.

Fields likely to be subjected to wireworm damage are difficult to define, but wheat is more susceptible than oats or barley. Crops following summerfallow or grass are more likely to suffer severe damage than are crops on stubble.

Control -- Seed dressing containing Lindane, Aldrin or Heptachlor will provide positive protection at a cost of less than 20c per acre. These materials used at the rate of one ounce applied to the seed sown on one acre will destroy 70 to 85% of the wireworms and provide almost 100% protection of the crop. In addition a single treatment will protect subsequent crops for three to five years.

Dual Treatments -- Wireworm seed dressing may be purchased as dual treatments which contain Mercury or other fungicides for the prevention of disease to seed and seedlings.

The use of seed treating chemicals for wireworms, smuts and other seed borne diseases is a sound, low-cost investment in crop protection.

Durum Wheat Production

(H. McKenzie — Cerealist)

The durum wheat outlook, although not as good as in recent years, still appears favorable for 1957.

The recommended varieties for this region are Stewart and Mindum, both of which possess high-yielding ability. Comparisons with Thatcher over a three-year period reveal a two-bushel-per-acre advantage for the durum.

Both of these durum varieties are eligible for top market grades because of their excellent macaroni characteristics. Golden Ball is ineligible for grades above

Extra 4 C.W. due to poor macaroni quality and is therefore not recommended.

The importance of good quality in durum grain, which is influenced both by varieties and cultural practices, is reflected in recent buying trends. Demand is strong for durum in the top grades and weaker for durum in the lower grades.

The sawfly resistance of Stewart and Mindum varies from year to year. In tests at Lethbridge, the durums were as resistant as Rescue in two out of three years but susceptible in the other year. In general, they are not as resistant as Rescue.

The taller, weaker straw of the durums is subject to lodging in wet seasons. Under conditions of normal rainfall on the prairies, however, lodging is not a problem.

The durums mature several days to a week later than the bread wheats. Stewart and Mindum should be grown only in southern Alberta and not in areas north of Calgary or the foothills region where fall frosts are a problem.

The absence of quota restrictions on durum wheat until 1956 made it a popular cash crop. However, delivery restrictions are less important with durum than with bread wheat at the present time. Surplus durum supplies are very small while surplus bread wheat supplies are large.

Durum production, which was seriously curtailed in Manitoba and eastern Saskatchewan following severe rust epidemics several years ago, may revive again in the near future. A new, rust-resistant variety, Ramsey, has been licensed in Canada and distributed for increase in 1957. This variety will have a negligible effect on the market this year, owing to its limited distribution.

Market prospects appear satisfactory for durum growers in southern Alberta for 1957.

Last year volunteers of the Canadian Cancer Society made and distributed free four million cancer dressings.

EKLUND-FRASER

Bouquets of yellow and white spring flowers in the Champion United Church formed the setting for the afternoon wedding on April 12, of Miss Carole Elizabeth Fraser and Carmen John Eklund. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Emily Fraser of Champion and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Eklund of Wainworth, Sask. Rev. Wm. Huston officiated.

For her wedding the bride who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Jack Sanderson, chose a street-length dress of white figured shantung, featuring turquoise organza trimming. She wore a small white hat and carried a colonial bouquet of turquoise carnations centred with pink roses. Her only jewellery was the groom's gift of a double strand of pearls and matching button earrings.

The bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Ohlweiser, wore a strapless turquoise with gold figured polished cotton. It was topped with a matching bolero. Her accessories were beige and white. She carried a bouquet of yellow mums and white daisies.

Clayton Becker attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Marvin Hopkins and Douglas Patterson.

During the signing of the register, the bride's cousin, Bill Sanderson of Michel, B.C., sang, "I'll Walk Beside You," accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Rhodes on the organ.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a white figured silk dress, topped with a brown linen bolero. Her accessories were beige.

A reception for sixty guests followed in the church basement, which was decorated in pink, white and silver. The master of ceremonies was Art Ulrich. The toast to the bride was given by Art Ulrich with the groom responding.

Rev. Wm. Huston gave a short talk. The bride's grandfather, A. (Sandy) Fraser of Carmangay recited a Scottish poem and sang, "The End of the Road." The soloist Mr. Sanderson sang, "Walk Hand in Hand With Me."

Centering the bride's table was a tiered wedding cake, which had been tastefully decorated by Mrs. Guy Dow.

For the honeymoon in Great Falls, Montana, the bride topped her wedding dress with a beige duster. She wore turquoise and white accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Eklund will reside in Champion.

Pre-Seeding Tillage of Fallow For Grain

On most prairie farms the use of the one-way disk with seeder attachment or early cultivation followed by a double disk drill have become the accepted practices of seeding grain on fallow in early spring. Tests have been underway at the Experimental Farm, Scott, Saskatchewan, since 1948 to study the effect of early spring tillage prior to seeding on uniformly prepared summerfallow.

The nine year average yields show that early seeding with a one-way and packer or cultivating and seeding without delay using a double disk drill are the two lowest yielding treatments in the test. Average yields of 12.9 and 11.8 bushels of wheat are recorded for these two treatments respectively. The highest yielding treatments in this test occurred when the land was cultivated as early as possible and, subsequently, seeded ten days later with a one-way and packer or again cultivated and seeded with a drill. These treatments have given an average yield of 14.2 and 15.0 bushels per acre of wheat respectively. Higher yield increases have been noted for coarse grains, particularly oats, with this treatment. If cultivation is delayed until a crop of weeds has appeared and these are destroyed and this is followed by another cultivation and seeding after a ten-day interval, the wheat yields have been 12.9 and 12.5 bushels per acre when seeded with a drill and one-way respectively.

This method of delayed seeding has given as high as 95 percent reduction in wild buckwheat stands when compared to early cultivation followed by immediate seedings. Therefore, in areas where wild buckwheat, and certain other annual weeds are a problem, early tillage with delayed seeding is helpful in the control of such weeds.

The most significant result from these tests is that early tillage of fallow in spring followed by seeding ten days later has produced the highest yields in dry seasons, which is an objective every grain grower is trying to achieve.

Many years ago a common "treatment" for skin cancer in England was to tie a live toad to the tumor. Of course, it did no good. Today 95% of skin cancers are cured when treated early with X-ray or surgery.

DUST BOWL RETURNING

A situation is developing in the south central United States that could profoundly change the world's wheat outlook, says The Financial Post.

Droughts more severe than those of the 'thirties have a large area in Texas Kansas and Oklahoma.

Agricultural experts state that at least 14 million acres of light soil subject to wind erosion in this region should be taken out of grain and tied down permanently in grass. Something like that was planned during the last dust bowl era. But in contrast to Canada where several million acres of light soil were taken out and seeded down. Little was actually accomplished in the United States.

Moreover, with the return of rains and higher prices more light land was broken and the U.S. wheat acreage sharply increased.

Canada, of course, would not be immune if the drought spread into this country. But thanks to conservation measures taken under P.F.R.A. and the steady improvement in production methods, we can be sure that the damage will be much less than it would otherwise have been.

We farmers have problems. We need to give them a long, hard look. What can we do about them?

Agricultural policies are made in Ottawa by the party in power. That's where we urgently need representation on the government side. I am running on the Liberal ticket and there is no doubt that the Liberals will be returned to power on June 10. For twenty-two years the Macleod member has sat on the opposition side.

Opposition is necessary, for good government but it is a luxury we farmers can no longer afford. Let's let someone else provide the opposition for a change.

As a farmer and rancher I ask for your backing, which will send an effective member to Ottawa.

Between now and June 10, I am going to deal in this column each week with Macleod federal problems and indicate the solutions I intend to boost.

Remember the first of the panels arranged by District 12 Farm Union of Alberta will be at Carmangay, Monday, April 22.

Other Dates are:—

April 23 — Granum
April 24 — Pincher Creek
April 25 — Fort Macleod
April 26 — Black Diamond
April 30 — Nanton

Smith - Sansome Rites Observed

Spring flowers decorated the altar and chancel of St. Aldhelm's Anglican Church, Saturday, April 6, at 2 p.m., when Barbara Violet, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Sansome of Champion became the bride of Benjamin Robert youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Smith of the Berrywater district, with the Reverend R. H. Johnson performing the marriage rites.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride entered the church to the strains of the "Wedding March," played by Mrs. Roy Walker. The bride's strapless gown, featured a fitted bolero, with long lily-point sleeves, and a full floor-length skirt, over crinoline was of white nylon net over satin. The fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of lace, set with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, mounted with red roses and from which fell streamers of white satin entwined with tiny buds.

Miss Ruth Sansome was her sister's maid of honor and wore a gown of pink net over taffeta and a bandeau of net and seed pearls in her hair. The bridesmaid, Miss June Hames of Champion, cousin of the bride was attired in yellow lace over taffeta with matching bandeau and both attendants carried red rose bouquets.

Dave Smith, brother of the groom attended him, while the guests were ushered to their places by Robert Sansome, brother of the bride and Allan Smith, brother of the groom. The guest pews were marked by white satin bows.

During the signing of the register the children's choir of the church sang, "O, Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. Walker.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 65 friends and relatives was held in the I.O.O.F. dining hall, which was decorated for the occasion with baskets of spring blooms; pink and white streamers and white wedding bells. The bride's table was centered with a decorated three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by pink and white candles.

Receiving with the bride and groom were the parents of each. Mrs. Sansome chose for her daughter's wedding an afternoon gown of blue nylon, with white accessories and corsage of red roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. J. S. Smith wore a blue flowered nylon afternoon gown, which she complemented with white accessories. She too wore a rose corsage.

Ted Hames of Champion proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom very fittingly replied.

Later the bride changed to a dress of white and blue nylon, which she topped with a cream colored coat, and she wore white accessories. The young couple left for a short honeymoon at Great Falls, Mont. They will make their home in Vulcan.

Out-of-town guests were from Staveland, Claresholm, Calgary, Lethbridge, Dalmead, Champion and High River.
